

Our organization seeks to:

Establish, cultivate and promote programs and policies that mark the passage of life with dignity and ceremony and that meet with sensitivity the special needs of those who survive.

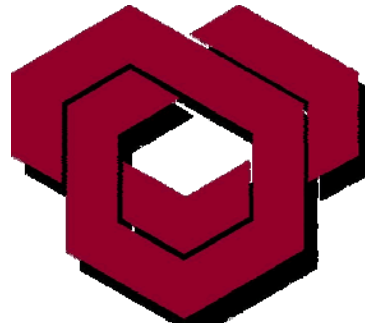

Establish and maintain programs and policies that advocate and promote the public confidence and consumer satisfaction in connection with pre-need funeral arrangements.

Cultivate and promote the art and science of funeral directing and embalming and to educate and train funeral service professionals to enable them to appropriately serve the public during the time of death and bereavement.

Due to the Budget Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993, any dues revenues utilized by a professional or trade association for lobbying purposes cannot be deducted by the member who paid the dues. In accordance with the ACT, the AFDA is hereby notifying its membership that it estimates that 10% of 2010 dues paid by a member will not be deductible as ordinary business expense for federal tax purposes. This estimate is to be utilized by members in determining what portions of the AFDA dues are deductible. Please provide a copy of this notice to your accountant or tax preparer.
